

Title: Daniel J. Mallette Family Collection, ca. 1925-1976

Storage: Box Lot (1 horizontal box, 11x14 in.), Color Photoprints (CP0004), Negatives (N0004), Photographic Ephemera (1 folder of 5 2-d items), Information File Cabinet (1 folder of non graphic material)

Accession Number: G1985.0412

Description of the Collection:

Summary: Snapshots, formal portraits, and a family photo album relating to Catholic priest Mallette and/or his parents Daniel J. Sr. and Anne. Includes family activities in Chicago, vacation (mid-1920s) along the Western shores of Lake Michigan, and Anne and Daniel Sr.'s European trip (1950). Also includes Daniel Jr.'s seminary activities and first Mass; his religious assignments and activities in the 1960s and early 1970s in Chicago's poor areas are not represented.

Container List

Box 1

- 1 Family photographic album, ca. 1925-1935
- 2 Family photographs, formal portraits of Daniel Mallette Jr., ca. 1936-1970s
- 3 Daniel Sr. and Anne Mallette's trip to Europe, 1950
- 4 Seminary group photographs, first mass, other religious ceremonies
- 5 Father Mallette with personalities at unidentified event
- 6 Photographic Ephemera (photocopies)

Color Photoprints

- 4 First Mass (May 5, 1957), formal portraits of Daniel Mallette Jr., Christmas greeting from John Cardinal Cody (1985), Seminary baking activities, and various family photographs

Negatives

- 4 Family pictures, printed and not printed
European trip, printed and not printed

Photographic Ephemera

Envelopes from processing laboratories